

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Right or wrong? Trends in contemporary English grammar

1. Less men think like that nowadays.
2. All cats don't like being picked up.
3. A: There's someone at the door.      B: Tell them I can't see them today.
4. He took my wife and I out to dinner.
5. Teacher, during an activity: "I'm hearing a lot of mistakes with the articles."
6. She asked me what was my name.
7. I waited till she finished.
8. If I'd have known it was on, I'd have gone to see it.
9. How do you dare to talk to me like that?
10. He's the man that stole the car.
11. Our mission is to boldly go where no man has gone before.
12. That's something we must look into.
13. Do you have a car?
14. He don't know the score.
15. His room was more neat and tidy than I'd ever seen it.
16. I was sat in the garden when it started to rain.
17. Of the two cities, Paris is the nicest.
18. The three of us just looked at each other.
19. I wish I could swim as well as him.
20. They acted like they owned the place.

Decide if the sentences are grammatically correct or not. Use these symbols:

- 😊 It is correct, or even desirable in the context.
- 😐 It depends on the context, register, style (written or spoken English, formal or informal language)
- 😞 It is sub-standard or incorrect.